Fall 2026

Fall 2026 Introductions

Fall 2026 reflects a continued exploration of pattern, precision and the quiet power of meaningful details. Rooted in craftsmanship and informed by global design traditions, this collection unites beautiful embroideries and richly considered textures, where each piece is designed to feel elevated and enduring.

In the bedroom, Dalila's soft, hand-rendered motifs introduce a sense of lightness and artistry, while Laksha's geometric pattern and Casablanca's tile-inspired embroidery offer a structured, graphic perspective. Sebastian's embroidered windowpane linen offers an architectural sensibility, balancing form with ease. Pieces like Jackson and Perla add depth through texture, while Emory, on our Gatsby Giza cotton percale, sets a new standard for luxury.

In the bath, the Nico towel offers a fresh take on the waffle weave, while Jasmine Giza adds embroidery to exquisite Egyptian cotton with a graceful, decorative touch. The Giza rug extends the story underfoot, where the Regine rug translates a bold zebra print into a bathroom essential.

Classic patterns also take center stage around the table, where Balthazar's marbled print evokes the artistry of handcrafted Italian paper, while Laksha and Marcella balance structured design with soft, tonal detail—each made to layer seamlessly and elevate every gathering.
